Following outrage, Tamil Nadu builder withdraws 'Brahmins only' ad

- Chennai. Following criticism over an advertisement that said 'Brahmins only' flats on sale for an upcoming residential project at Srirangam in Tiruchirappalli, Tamil Nadu, the builder on Tuesday removed the advertisement and clarified that they are not against any caste or religion.
- The builder has denied any ulterior motive. Speaking to India Today TV, General Manager of Om Shakti Construction Anbu said, "Our initial plan was to sell the flats only to vegetarians but the printers wrongly published it as Brahmins only. We are not against any caste or religion. We will sell the flats to anyone interested."
- Om Shakti Construction had put up the advertisement for its upcoming project 'Sri Sakti Renga Apartments' on Melur Road in the temple town of Srirangam. A total of 13 units are up for sale and can be occupied in two months time.
- On Monday, Tamil Nadu Untouchability Eradication Front (TNUEF) petitioned District Collector S Sivarasu, seeking action against the builder. The forum in its petition said, "This is a new form of untouchability in the modern age. The main agenda of the advertisement is not to sell flats to Dalits and minorities."

Mohali police honour officers who died in line of duty

- Mohali. District police observed the police commemoration day at the District Administrative Complex on Monday. Police personnel paid their tribute to the policemen martyred in the line of duty.
- Chief guest Deputy Commissioner Girish Dayalan urged everyone to stand with the family members of the martyrs. "Let us vow to look after the families of the police martyrs as they lost their members for our bright future," DC Dayalan said.
- He recalled the role of the Punjab police in preserving peace in the state, besides safeguarding the unity and integrity of the country.He said 35 officers and officials of the district police had sacrificed their lives for maintaining peace and integrity, and their supreme sacrifice would always inspire the younger generation of police officials.Senior Superintendent of Police Kuldeep Singh Chahal said that the Punjab police would always remain indebted to its heroes, who have brought laurels for the police force through their bravery. Both the officers also heard the grievances of the family members of the martyrs and assured them of early solutions of their problems.
